

Political communication in times of failed democratic expectations

Pre-conference of the IAMCR Political Communication Research Section

Location: Universidad Jorge Tadeo Lozano

Sede Centro, Calle de la Chichería N° 38-42

9.30 Welcome address and introduction

Julio Juárez-Gámiz (UNAM, Mexico City/Mexico)

Rescuing political communication from itself: engagement and participation in today's democracy

9.50 Keynote: Mediatization and Rise of Populist Politics

Daniel C. Hallin (University of California, San Diego/USA)

10.45 Coffee break

11.15 Afonso de Albuquerque and Juliana Gagliardi (Fluminense Federal University, Niterói/Brazil)

A Free, Undemocratic Media? O Globo and the Unmaking of Brazilian Democracy

12.00 David Katiambo (Technical University of Kenya, Nairobi/Kenya & University of South Africa, Pretoria/South Africa)

Nationalism as pleasure of transgression: Explaining nationalism challenge to liberal democracy

12.45 Lunch break

14.15 Özlem Doruk Şahin (Anadolu University, Eskişehir/Turkey)

Populist Political Communication in Turkey: Discussions about the Upcoming Constitutional Referendum

15.00 Coffee break

15.30 Ine Kuypers (University of Antwerp/Belgium), Knut De Swert (University of Amsterdam/Netherlands) & Stefaan Walgrave (University of Antwerp/Belgium)

Television news source patterns after another decade of rising populism (2006-2016). A nine country cross-national comparison

16.15 Sholnn Freeman (Howard University, Washington, DC/USA)

Who is Provoking Political Crisis in the United States? Applying the Propaganda Model to Russia-gate

17.00 Job Allan Wefwafwa (Technical University of Kenya, Nairobi/Kenya)

Native Expectations and Indigenous Groupings a Setback to Democracy; Case of Kenya's Bukusu Ethnic Sub-tribe

18.45 The End

Supported by the IAMCR Section & Working Group Project Fund.